Our Thunder design is focused on applications that require small blind side clearance, needing a high load with larger hole sizes. The fastener uses a driven bar design to engage clamping by driving the legs into the head and pulling back on itself. The Thunder Kwikbolt keeps holes true and provides a high clamp and high sheer performance. Head configurations include Countersunk Protruding (SP) and Flat Protruding (FP).